

An invitation to join the Palouse Prairie Foundation!

Members may participate in a number of new activities in the coming year. Here are a few:

- Receive a members-only tour of the private prairie land and heritage apple orchards on Steptoe Butte
- Help plant the John Crock Memorial Garden along the Latah Trail
- Join the Second Annual Weeding Party at Whelan Cemetery
- Participate in a Botany Blitz collecting specimens on Steptoe Butte in May and June

Membership dues are used for efforts to officially and legally recognize Palouse Prairie in Latah and Whitman County land use documents, to support the program of mini-grants awarded to schools and individuals, for the presentation of public programs and workshops, and generally to continue our mission to preserve, protect, and promote the Palouse Prairie.
